TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

REF: PERMISSION TO WORK DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC CURFEW PERIOD

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, the President through the Kenya Gazette Supplement No. 30 (Legal Notice No. 36) declared a state of curfew on 27th March 2021.

The Legal Notice states that the Order shall not apply to Services, Personnel or Workers of licensed Telecommunications Operators and Service Providers which has been classified as one of the essential services.

Broadband Communication Network Limited is licensed by Communication Authority as a Telecommunication Contractor. In this regard, we support the Mobile Service & fixed Data Providers who includes Safaricom, Airtel and Telkom with Mobile Network and Fixed Data Maintenance & Deployment Services across the country.

The person named here below is our employee and may need to operate during the curfew period to effectively ensure the mobile network and fixed data is up and running.

Name: Wycliffe Ayaya Otieno

ID/Passport No: 23262003

Should you require further clarification or confirmation, please contact the undersigned on 0720361682.

Your assistance will be highly appreciated.

Yours faithfully
