

ABUTIKA

AGLES

Karicho Mugoan

H31/10479/06

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI

MBCHB LEVEL III CAT IN SURGERY GROUP E

DATE: JULY 4, 2008

TIME: 1 HOUR

MADIHA SULTAN

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Attempt ALL Questions.
2. Mark one most appropriate response for each question.
3. No mark will be awarded if you give more than one response. mark will be deducted for a wrong response.
4. Write your index number on every page

- ~~1~~
- A.
- B.
- C.
- D.
- E.

Fracture of the tibia/fibula can be correctly be treated with the following except

Above knee cast

Below knee cast

Plates and screws

Interlocking nail

Interlocking plate

2.

A.

B.

C.

D.

E.

Complications of radius/ulna fracture does not include:-

Malunion

Reduced pronation/supination

Angulation

Volkman ischaemic contracture

Homans sign

↓
Dorsiflexion of foot leads to intense pain on calf or

Popliteal region

Indicator of DVT

Intermedullary nail -

fibia, humerus

Coar of neck of Brachial artery may pass in cubital fossa
Indicator of DVT