

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
PHARMACEUTICAL TECHNOLOGIST

We are a leading healthcare provider in the region with our mission being to provide compassionate, Christ Centered, client responsive high quality healthcare to all. We seek a passionate and enthusiastic individual to fill in the above vacancy for our Lang'ata Branch

Position's Objective

To review prescriptions for accuracy, dispense accurately, advise patients and clients on proper drugs use, and ensure excellent customer service and efficiency in the Pharmacy.

Duties & Responsibilities:

1. Participate in development, implementation and review of Pharmacy Standard Operating Procedures in relation to efficient operations, accurate prescribing and correct dispensing of medicines to inpatients and outpatients.
2. Check for accuracy and ensure compliance with doctors' prescriptions and provide accurate and full information to patients on their medications and interaction.
3. Facilitate quick discharge of inpatients by processing their files in time
4. Provide drug and therapeutics information to patients as required.
5. Observe laid down drug control safety systems and procedures in all transactions.
6. Advise staff in other disciplines within the Hospital on proper use of medicines and all other drugs.
7. Confirm package of the correct quantities of drugs before issuance to the patients
8. Participate in internal CMEs both departmental and with other disciplines
9. Participate in stock taking in the pharmacy
10. Keep abreast of new development of drugs, techniques and pharmaceutical services in order to disseminate appropriate information to patients
11. Support the Head of Pharmacy in having the Department achieve local and international quality management standards
12. Ensure excellent customer relations management by Pharmacy to all its clients
13. Progressively improve the turnaround time .

Qualifications & Requirements

1. Diploma in Pharmacy from a recognized Institution
2. Requisite valid licensure with the Pharmacy and Poisons Board
3. Minimum of 2 years experience in a busy hospital pharmacy.
4. Good communication (written and verbal) skills, including well developed presentation skills

Qualified candidates are encouraged to forward their application letters and CVs to: recruitment@stmmh.co.ke on or before 10th March 2023 , Email subject should be Pharmaceutical Technologist

